

Short description of the BlueJ Workspace Handler

Remarks:

- To delete a project the project directory has to be deleted for example in the explorer. After that the project list should be refreshed.
- To rename a project the project directory has to be renamed for example in the explorer. After that the project list should be refreshed.